THE DAILY BULLETIN

Is published every morning, and circulated throughout the town, and forwarded to the other islands by every opportunity.

Subscription, - 25 cents per month.

Yesterday afternoon about two o'clock, Mr. D. Brader, first officer of the German bark Atalanta, discharging at Brewer's wharf, accidentally fell from between decks to the bottom of the hold, a distance of about twelve feet. He struck on the side of his head, receiving a very severe shock, and was, when our reporter visited the ship, stated to be wandering in his mind. Dr. Brodie was called to attend him.

Another runaway took place on Thursday afternoon. An express wagon, without the driver, came tearing down from the direction of Paioa and turned in to Nuuanu Avenue, down which the horse galloped, narrowly escaping collision with two vehicles containing ladies and children, much, it may be supposed, to disturbance of nerves. There should be some regulation, whereby incompetent persons may be prevented from taking up the business of drivers and imperilling the public safety. In fact, we need a city government of some sort, for various reasons.

On Wednesday last, according to previous notice, the lease for ten years of some 1200 acres of Government land in the District of Hilo, was sold at auction, by the Minister of the Interior. The upset price was $600, payable quarterly in advance. It brought the handsome rental of $2,050 per annum. Hon. J. E. Bush being the purchaser. The land must be a valuable one, to bring such a rent. At the expiration of the lease the Government will have received the snug sum of $20,500, and again step into possession of its land. Such leases of Government lands, as a rule, would be as good as gold mines, and far better for the public treasury than selling outright. The purchaser in this instance evidently has faith in the coming Hilo and Hamakua railway.

The Social Lawn Tennis Club will play on the grounds adjoining St. Andrews Cathedral this afternoon, at 3 o'clock sharp. A good attendance of members is requested.

A case of smuggling occurred last night, and it was a case of "Old Tom" Gin at that. Two sailors, belonging to the Earl of Dalhousie, lying at the Esplanade, were arrested on Smith street with the stuff in possession, and lodged in the Station House. It is probable it may turn out more of a spree than an attempt to evade duties.
